Terms and Conditions

Intensive Film Program is 6 months film education program organized around not less than 7 and not more than 10 workshops during which a student will develop and make at least one short fiction film. Students are not obliged to participate in any of the workshops or film viewing. In order to move to next level of work on their films they have to submit previous phase final result (synopsis, script, storyboard/shooting script, budget, etc.).

7thArtDepot is obliged to organize workshops with international teachers on which will meet all conditions of the education process (teaching equipment, enough time dedicated per student, etc.). 7thArtDepot is also obliged to provide all the necessary equipment and other expenses of production of final short films as agreed and stated in production plan and budget made with teachers on production workshop. 7thArtDepot will also provide postproduction facilities that will allow students to finish its film according to the script and production plan.

Final film will be a property of the student and she/he will be able to use it for its own promotion, present it on the FilmFestivals and also to keep 90% of proceeds it earns in awards or selling it for cinema, TV, DVD/BluRay or internet distribution in the first 5 years after production. After that student will keep 100% of proceeds.

7thArtDepot keeps rights to use film, as a part of in its entirety, as a part of promotion of the Intensive Film Program, also to promote it on Film Festivals, cinema, TV and internet. 7thArtDepot is entitled to keep 10% of proceeds it earns in awards or selling it for cinema, TV, DVD/BluRay or internet distribution in the first 5 years after production.

Students are obliged to pay their tuition in the following manner: 70% with the enlistment, 20% by the start of classes, and 10% by the begging of production workshop. In case of or failure to pay student loses right to participate in classes. If student decide not to show or continue the program, tuition funds that have been already paid are not refundable in its entirety.
